

HALLOWEEN

READING COMPREHENSION

Read the text and answer the questions below.

Last Halloween, Emma and her friends decided to go trick-or-treating in their neighborhood. Emma dressed up as a witch, while her friend Tom was a pirate. They knocked on many doors and got lots of candy. Some houses had spooky decorations, like pumpkins with scary faces and ghosts hanging from trees.

At one house, they met a black cat sitting on the porch. Emma thought the cat was part of the Halloween decorations, but when it moved, she jumped back in surprise! The cat looked at them with glowing green eyes and ran into the bushes.

Later that night, they gathered all their candy and shared it with each other. They laughed and talked about the spooky cat they saw. It was a fun Halloween night, and they couldn't wait to go trick-or-treating again next year!

1. What did Emma dress up as?

2. What did Tom dress up as?

3. What did they see on the houses?

4. What animal did Emma see on the porch?

5. Where did the cat run to?

6. What did Emma and her friends do with their candy?
